Special Christmas Offering: Furnish the Frasier Home

The Frasier Home will be a sober living residence for women who have graduated from the substance abuse treatment offered at Hannah's House in Hanford. It is designed to help create a cushion between treatment and finding a permanent home. Koinonia has the opportunity to help furnish and decorate some of the rooms and communicate God's love and care for these women. Your gift today will go to furnishings and decorations and any remaining funds will go towards supporting this awesome program.
